inequities and the health divide across all countries, including those with low incomes. The report is presented in four parts. Part I provides the context and
background to the

This book presents
WHO guidelines for
the protection of
public health from risks due to a number of chemicals
commonly present in

tetrachloroethylene,
have indoor sources,
are known in respect
of their hazardousness to health and are often found indoors in concentrations of health concern. The guidelines are targeted at public
health professionals
involved in preventing health risks of
